

Privacy Notice – Website

Alpha Housing is committed to protecting your privacy when you visit or communicate with us via our website. This Privacy Notice, compiled in accordance with General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) describes our practices regarding the information collected, used, disclosed and otherwise processed when you visit our website.

By using our website, you are agreeing to be bound by this notice, the content of which applies regardless of the means or device you use to access the website.

We will routinely review this notice and may make changes from time to time. Any questions regarding our privacy practices should be sent to our Data Protection Officer via e mail on info@alphahousingni.org

Data and Information we Collect

To operate our website it is essential to collect or process certain types of data. In general, you can visit our website without telling us who you are or providing any personal information. However, when you visit our Site, we automatically collect some data about our users' browsing actions and patterns. We collect this information to help us to improve our understanding of our users and their preferences. Our web server automatically records certain information, such as your IP (Internet Protocol) address and other related information such as the name of your ISP (Internet service provider), your browser type, operating system and language, the website from which you visit us, keywords and any browser add-on technologies that are available for content delivery, the pages on our Sites you visit and in what sequence, and the date and length of your visit.

We collect personal information when you provide details through our "contact us" form. Depending on the content of the query, we may keep a record of that correspondence, but we will not share it with a third party. The types of personal information we may collect include: your name, email address, postal address and telephone number.

Cookies

Like many other websites, we use cookies to store information about you. Cookies are text files containing small amounts of information which are downloaded to your device when you visit a site. Cookies are then sent back to the originating site on each subsequent visit, or to another site that recognises that cookie. We use Google Analytics to analyse traffic. It is only used to improve how the Site works. Google Analytics uses its own cookies. These cookies don't collect information that identify a visitor to our website, it is anonymous. More information about cookies is available at: www.allaboutcookies.org
